Supreme Courts of Appeal.

Judicial Court of the House of Lords.

The House of Lords is the Court of Appeal from the decisions of His Majesty's Court of Appeal in England, and from the Courts of Scotland and Ireland.

For the purpose of aiding the House in the hearing and determination of appeals, His Majesty is empowered to appoint not more than six Lords of Appeal in Ordinary, who are entitled to rank as barons during life, and to sit and vote in the House.

Judicial Committee of the Privy Council.

Office, Downing street, Whitehall SW1.

The Judicial Committee of the Privy Council consists of the Lord Chancellor, Lord President, ex-Lords-President, the six Lords of Appeal in Ordinary, & such other Members of the Privy Council as shall from time to time hold or have held "High Judicial Office" within the meaning of the Appellate Jurisdiction Acts 1876 & 1887. Among the last are included the Earl of Halsbury, Earl Loreburn, G.C.M.G. Viscount Haldane, K.T., O.M. Lord Buckmaster, Lord Wrenbury & Sir Walter Phillimore bart. Lord Parmoor is a Member by virtue of Sec. 1, & Sir John Edge & Syed Ameer Ali, C.I.E. are Members of the Committee by virtue of Sec. 30 of the Judicial Committee Act, 1833. By virtue of the Judicial Committee Amendment Act, 1895, as amended by the Appellate Jurisdiction Acts, 1908 & 1913, the following Judges from the Dominions beyond the Seas are Members:—Sir Samuel Walker Griffith, G.C.M.G., C.J. (Australia—High Court), Sir Edmund Barton, G.C.M.G. (Australia—High Court), Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, G.C.M.G., C.J. (Canada—Supreme Court), Sir James Rose-Innes, K.C.M.G., C.J. (South Africa—Supreme Court) & Sir Lawrence Hugh Jenkins, K.C.I.E. (Bengal).

Registrar of the Privy Council & Registrar of Ecclesiastical Causes, Charles Neish, C.B. Barrister-at-Law.
Chief Clerk, W. Reeve Wallace
Second Clerk, J. H. Houghton
Third Clerk, D. G. Lys
Woman Clerk, Miss N. C. Lewis

Court of Criminal Appeal.

[Criminal Appeal Acts, 1907-1908.]

Office, Room 754, Royal Courts of Justice WC2.

The Court consists of the Lord Chief Justice of England and the Judges of the King's Bench Division of the High Court, who may sit in two or more Divisions of not less than three Judges each. Any person convicted on indictment may appeal on a question of law, or, by leave, on a question of fact, or against the sentence, unless it is one fixed by law.

The Court sits as occasion requires.

Registrar, Leonard William Kershaw
Assistant Registrar, Thomas Dalton Lawrance
Principal Clerk, R. E. Ross, LL.B
Clerks, C. M. D. Pigott, W. E. E. Stone, E. G. H. Evans & R. H. French

Supreme Court of Judicature.

By the Supreme Court of Judicature Act 1873, 36 & 37 Vict. cap. 66, sect. 3, as amended by the Amendment Act of 1875, 38 & 39 Vict. cap. 77, § 9, the Court of Chancery, the Courts of King's Bench, Common Pleas, and Exchequer, and the Courts of Admiralty, Probate, and Divorce, were united and consolidated together as one SUPREME COURT OF JUDICATURE.

The Supreme Court has no judicial functions. It never sits as a Court. It consists of two permanent divisions, viz. "HIS MAJESTY'S HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE" and "HIS MAJESTY'S COURT OF APPEAL."

By an order in Council which came into force on 26th February, 1881, the Three Common Law Divisions were consolidated into one, to be called King's Bench Division, and the offices of Chief Justice of the Common Pleas and Lord Chief Baron were abolished.

By the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1881, the Master of the Rolls ceased to be a Judge of the Chancery Division.

By the Bankruptcy Act, 1883, Section 93, the London Bankruptcy Court was united and consolidated with and made to form part of the Supreme Court of Judicature, and the jurisdiction of the London Bankruptcy Court was transferred to the High Court of Justice, and by virtue of an Order dated 1st Jan. 1884, made under sec. 94 of the said Act assigned to the King's Bench Division of the said High Court.

By the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1891 (54 & 55 Vict. c. 53, sec. 1). Ex-Lord Chancellors are made Judges of the Court of Appeal. By sec. 3 the House of Lords may call in the aid of one or more assessors on appeals in Admiralty actions. Section 4, sub-section 1, enacts that the High Court in England shall be a Prize Court within the meaning of the Naval Prize Act, 1864 (27 & 28 Vict. c. 25). By sub-section 2 all causes and matters under this Act as a Prize Court are assigned to the Probate, Divorce and Admiralty Division of the Court.

COURT OF APPEAL (HIS MAJESTY'S).

This Court has jurisdiction over appeals from all judgments or orders of His Majesty's High Court of Justice, except in criminal and certain other cases (Judicature Act, 1873, §§ 19, 47, 49).

By sec. 18, all the jurisdiction and powers of the following Courts, &c., are also transferred to and vested in the Court of Appeal, viz.:—

(1) The appellate jurisdiction of the Lord Chancellor and the Court of Appeal in Chancery (including, as to the latter, its appellate jurisdiction in Bankruptcy)
(2) The Court of Appeal in Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster, and the Chancellor of the Duchy and County Palatine of Lancaster as a judge of appeal
(3) The Court of the Lord Warden of the Stannaries
(4) The Court of Exchequer Chamber
(5) The jurisdiction of His Majesty in Council or the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council on appeal from judgments of the Admiralty Court or from Orders in Lunacy

Three additional ordinary Judges of the Court have been transferred from the High Court of Justice, under the powers of "The Appellate Jurisdiction Act, 1876."

By the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1877, 40 Vict. cap. 9, sec. 4, it was enacted that the ordinary Judges of the Court of Appeal should be styled Lord Justices of Appeal.

By the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1881, sec. 2, it was enacted that the Master of the Rolls should cease to be a Judge of His Majesty's High Court of Justice, but should continue an ex-officio Judge of the Court of Appeal, and retain his title and privileges.

By the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1884, sec. 3, it was enacted that the President for the time being of the Probate, Divorce, and Admiralty Division of the High Court of Justice should have rank and precedence in the Court of Appeal next after all ordinary Judges of that Court appointed before the time at which he shall have become an ex-officio member thereof.

CITY and SOUTHWARK COURTS.

Lord Mayor's Court.

Office, Guildhall EC2.

Hours from 10 till 4; Saturdays, 10 till 1.

[Procedure Act, 1857, 20 & 21 Vict. cap. civil. (local).]

The Mayor's Court is a Court of Record. The jurisdiction extends to all places within the City and Liberties; and, if the cause of action arises within the jurisdiction, the plaint may, by leave of the Court, be served in any part of England or Wales.

The Court has a legal jurisdiction concurrent with that of the High Court of Justice in all personal actions of a civil nature (except replevins), arising under the common or general law of the land, within its limits; and also in ejectment. It has also jurisdiction over a variety of causes of considerable importance, arising out of the City Customs (as Sequestration, Disfranchisement, Defamation, Debt on Concessit Solvere, Apprenticiality, Feme Sole, Merchant &c.), and in penal actions under Acts of Common Council.

Objections to the jurisdiction can only be taken by plea (§ 15); or, in certain cases, by proceeding in the High Court of Justice for a prohibition. And, in cases where the debt or damage claimed does not exceed £50, no such plea is allowed, provided the defendant, or one defendant, dwell or carry on business within the City or Liberties, or have done so within six months, or the cause of action, either wholly or in part, arose therein (§ 12).

[By the County Courts Act, 1888, 51 & 52 Vict. cap. 43, § 11, no costs beyond County Court costs are allowed in cases where the verdict is for less than £10. (See also Mayor's Court Procedure Act, 1857, § 11).]

The proceedings on the law side may be removed [by order of a Judge or Master (Borough Local Courts of Record Act, 1872, 35 & 36 Vict. cap. 86, §12)] to one of the Divisions of His Majesty's High Court of Justice by writ of certiorari, &c., under certain restrictions as to time and finding security, &c. (20 & 21 Vict. cap. civil. §§ 16 to 19, 52).

The equitable power of this Court, over matters arising within its jurisdiction, is concurrent with that of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice. It has the exclusive privilege of awarding restitution of apprentice premiums. It also relieves, when necessary, by injunction, against proceedings on the law side of the Court.

The proceedings on the equity side are removable into the Chancery Division above mentioned, with the permission of one of the Judges of that Division (§ 20).

Appeals lie from the determinations of the Court to any one of the Common Law divisions of the High Court of Justice (§ 8); and Error also lies for matters appearing on the record, to His Majesty's Court of Appeal, instead of to the "Court of St. Martin's-le-Grand" (see § 4). In proceedings on the equity side there is an appeal to the House of Lords (and see Judicature Acts & Rules made thereunder).

The Court sits for the trial of causes every month except September, in the Guildhall, the sitting days being appointed by the Recorder.

Judge, the Recorder of London, Sir Forrest Fulton, knt. K.C., LL.B. The Recorder's chambers, Guildhall EC2

Counsel & Solicitors. The Court is open to all barristers, and also to all solicitors of the High Court of Justice upon their signing the roll of the Court.

City of London Court.

[Under the "London (City) Small Debts Extension Act, 1852," 15 & 16 Vict. cap. lxxvii. (local) (repealing the former Acts), personal actions where the debt or damage claimed is not more than £50 (with certain exceptions) are heard and determined in this Court in a summary way. The jurisdiction extends to the City and Liberties, and to all precincts and extra-parochial places adjoining (§§ 39, 40). The general provisions of the Act are similar to those of the County Courts Acts. This Court has the like jurisdiction, powers and authorities to those possessed by the County Courts; and there is the like right of Appeal to the Superior Courts. The Court has also an Admiralty Jurisdiction, under the 31 & 32 Vict. cap. 71, and 32 & 33 Vict. cap. 51; with an Appeal to the High Court of Justice.

By the County Courts Act, 1888, Sec. 185, this Court is now called "The City of London Court," and the Rules and Orders in force for the time being, regulating the practice and costs in the County Courts, and forms of proceedings therein, are also in force herein.

By Order in Council of January 14th, 1869, the City of London Court was appointed to have Admiralty jurisdiction, under the "County Courts' Admiralty Jurisdiction Act, 1868" (31 & 32 Vict. cap. 71, and see 32 & 33 Vict. cap. 51), and the districts of the following County Courts were assigned to this Court as its district for Admiralty purposes, viz.:

The Districts of "the County Court of Essex, holden at Rochford, Brentwood, and Romford; the County Court of Kent, holden at Dartford, Gravesend, Greenwich, and Woolwich; the Southwark County Court of Surrey; the Bow County Court of Middlesex; the Whitechapel County Court of Middlesex, and the City of London Court."]

The Court is held at The Court, Guildhall buildings EC2. Sittings at 10.30 precisely; daily.

Registrar's Office, Guildhall buildings EC2; hours of business, daily, 10 to 4; Saturdays, 10 to 1.

METROPOLITAN POLICE FORCE.

Appointed under 10 Geo. 4, cap. 44; see also 2 & 3 Vict. cap. 47; 19 & 20 Vict. cap. 2; 20 & 21 Vict. cap. 64; 24 & 25 Vict. cap. 124.

The Metropolitan Police Force is under the control of the Commissioner of Police. The district now comprises all parishes, &c. within fifteen miles of Charing Cross, the City of London excepted.

On the 1st October, 1917, the authorised strength was 6 Chief Constables, 36 Superintendents, 652 Inspectors, 3,025 Sergeants, 18,571 Constables (Total 22,290). The Amendment Act, 19 & 20 Vict. cap. 2, appoints but one Commissioner of Police (to be styled "The Commissioner of Police of the Metropolis"), and two Assistant Commissioners.

By the 47 & 48 Vict. cap. 17, sec. 2, power is given to appoint a third Assistant Commissioner.

By the Act 9 Ed. VII. cap. 40, sec. 3, power is given to appoint a fourth Assistant Commissioner.

By the Act 13 & 14 Vict. cap. 7, the office of Registrar of Metropolitan Public Carriages was consolidated with the office of Commissioner of Police of the Metropolis. The Commissioner issues licences to Proprietors, Drivers and Conductors of Metropolitan Stage and Hackney Carriages under authority of the Secretary of State, the Act of 32 & 33 Vict. cap. 115, placing the government under the control generally of the Secretary of State. And by the Act 16 & 17 Vict. cap. 33 and Order prescribed by the Secretary of State in pursuance of The Public Carriage Act 1869 the inspection of Hackney and Metropolitan Stage Carriages and Horses, and the approval of them as to their fitness for public use, and the appointment of attendants at the standings for Hackney Carriages are also placed under the control of the Commissioner.

For COMMISSIONERS, &c. see "OFFICIAL DIRECTORY."

Quarter Sessions.

JURISDICTION.—The Court of General or Quarter Sessions is a court of record, deriving its jurisdiction in counties, ridings &c.—1st, from the commission of the peace; or 2nd, from particular statutes: 1st. From the commission it has jurisdiction to try all felonies, and all misdemeanors, except perjury and forgery at common law. It has never, however, been usual to try there any greater offences than small felonies; and in those counties and places which are within the Central Criminal Court District [see above] the jurisdiction was formerly much limited by the 17th section of the statute 4 & 5 Will. 4, cap. 36. That section is, however, repealed by 14 & 15 Vict. cap. 55, § 13. But the statutes 5 & 6 Vict. c. 38, § 1, and 4 & 5 Vict. c. 56, § 6, prohibit all Sessions for counties, ridings, divisions, liberties, or boroughs, from trying for treason, or misprision of treason, murder, or capital felony, or for any felony punishable for the first offence by transportation for life, or for various misdemeanors there enumerated. 2nd. By numerous statutes, the Court has also jurisdiction as to Alehouses (special sessions), Appeals from Petty or Special Sessions, Coroners' fees, County rate, Friendly Societies, Gaols, diverting and stopping Highways, Lunatic Asylums, Vagrants, and various other matters.

The jurisdiction of the Quarter Sessions of Boroughs which have a separate Court of Quarter Sessions is in most respects similar; the Recorder being the sole judge. [5 & 6 Wm. 4, c. 76, §§ 103, 105, 111; and see 12 & 13 Vict. c. 18.]

Times of Sitting.—The statute 11 Geo. 4, & 1 Will. 4, c. 70, § 35 enacts, that "the justices of the peace in every county, riding, or division, for which Quarter Sessions of the Peace by law ought to be held, shall hold their General Quarter Sessions of the Peace in:—

the first [full] week after the 11th Oct.;
—————— 28th Dec.;
—————— 31st March [but see below]; &
—————— 24th June."

But the 4 & 5 Will. 4, cap. 47, authorises the justices at the Epiphany Sessions to appoint two justices to fix the Spring or Easter Quarter Sessions, so as not to interfere with the Assizes, such Sessions not being earlier than the 7th of March, nor later than the 22nd of April.

The Law Society.

109-113 Chancery lane WC2; offices, Bell yard WC2

This Society was formed in the year 1827, in succession to an earlier Society dating from the year 1739, for the purpose of providing a Hall for the daily resort of the Members—a Library and Lecture-Rooms—Fire-Proof Rooms for depositing deeds and papers—an Office for concentrating information as to the proceedings of the different Courts, and other matters connected with the Solicitor's profession—a Registry for the arrangement of sales and mortgages, the sale of solicitors' practices, the engaging of clerks and the dissemination of information to members—Refreshment Rooms—and for such other objects and purposes as, in the progress of the Society, might be considered desirable for the convenience and advantage of the Profession. The Society received its first Charter of Incorporation in the year 1831.

The Society is composed of solicitors practising in Great Britain and Ireland; and writers to the signet, and writers in the courts of Justice in Scotland; and of gentlemen who may have voluntarily retired from those professions. The Society is entrusted with important duties with reference to the examination of persons desiring to enter the Profession, and the certificates of Solicitors.
